Asees comes from a multicultural background, having completed her studies in India and obtaining further specialization in Europe. She graduated in Global Governance from the University of Roma Tor Vergata (Italy), with a thesis focused on Global Value Chains. She also completed a Master's in Management at LUISS University (Italy) and obtained a second Master's degree, specializing in Supply Chain Management at Tilburg University (Netherlands). During her master's studies, she conducted a thesis research on the development of a strategy to "assess the social sustainability of suppliers", with a case study conducted at Enel S.p.A.

During her academic years, she passionately dedicated herself to various internships and corporate experiences. In 2020, she interned at the Hollard Insurance Company, collecting analytical data and optimizing customer pathways. In 2021, she led a project as an intern at AS Roma to develop a business model for the sustainable financing of football. In 2023, she completed an internship at Enel S.p.A., during which she also conducted her thesis research and was involved in refining the company's sustainability perspectives.

Asees has obtained recognized certifications and training. In 2018, she obtained the IELTS International English Language Testing System certification with a score of 8.5/9 and also the TEFL Teaching English as a Foreign Language certification. In 2018, she participated in the Festival della Diplomazia (Rome) as a speaker, and in 2019, she completed her training for the 'Educational Module Leadership, Creativity, and Rules' course conducted at the Italian Air Force Academy (Pozzuoli). In August 2021, she was appointed an ambassador for the FT Talent Challenge, and in October 2021, she became the LUISS Ambassador for the Asia Pacific region. From 2022 to 2023, she held the position of Secretary of the Global Governance Alumni Association.

At D&P, she takes on the role of Strategic Consultant and Analyst.
